

GUNAVATHI SUBRAMANIAM

SPECIALIST FACILITATOR - CONFLICT & MEDIATION

Gunavathi is an Advocate and Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya. She is accredited as one of the pioneer mediators of the Malaysian Mediation Center (MMC) of the Bar Council.

She was instrumental in drawing up the working paper for the establishment of the MMC in 1998 and its Code of Conduct and Mediation Rules. She was also responsible for drafting the draft “Mediation Act” on behalf of the Bar Council and was involved with deliberations on the said Act with the Attorney General’s office, which came into force in 2012.

Gunavathi is an experienced trainer in conflict management, negotiation and mediation. Her clients include Judges, Magistrates, Registrars and judicial officers as well as bankers, accountants, engineers, and human rights professionals. She has also consulted with the Olympic Council of Malaysia, the Industrial Relations Department of Malaysia.

She speaks both in Malaysia and internationally on these topics, having presented papers at international conferences.

She is also a part-time lecturer on Alternative Dispute Resolution for the Master in Laws programme at the Faculty of Law University Malaya since 1999.

She has successfully mediated several commercial and family disputes in Malaysia.